Wilmington Police Department - Two People Charged in Bank Robbery

Monday, September 15, 2014 - 5:21 pm

WILMINGTON, NC - Wilmington Police have charged a man and a woman with a bank robbery that occurred in Wilmington this summer.

31 year old Leonard Short and 25 year old Porsha Davis both of Washington, D.C. have been charged with Robbery with a Dangerous Weapon and Conspiracy to Commit a Robbery with a Dangerous Weapon. The pair were arrested in Washington, DC by the US Marshals last week and are now being held in the Prince George County Jail in Maryland. Investigators say the pair had been living in Wilmington for a short while.

The bank robbery occurred on July 28th at the First Citizens Bank at 2200 S. 17th Street. Eyewitnesses told police that a male suspect entered the bank, handed the teller a note demanding money. Short and Davis have both waived extradition and will be brought back to Wilmington in the coming weeks to face these charges.
